*Since 2011

For Mutual Understanding and Academic Exchange among Distinguished Students in The Three Countries

Yoshihiro SHIRAIWA, University of Tsukuba

Pre-history of the forum & the Pre-forum

- (1) [3-6 Mar 2007] Seventeen professors of Graduate School of Environmental Sciences, University of Tsukuba visited six universities (Peking University, Tsinghua university, China University of Geosciences, Chinese Agricultural University, Beijing Normal University, Graduate University of Chinese Academy of Sciences (GUCAS)) and one research institute (Institute of Geographic Sciences and Natural Resources Research (CAS)) in Beijing and discussed about action program-win-win including exchange of students.
- (2) [26-27 June 2007] The China-Japan Graduate Student Forum was firstly discussed at the University of Tsukuba (UT) in 2007 on the occasion of the visit of the Vice-president of GUCUS to the University of Tsukuba.
- (3) [23 Aug 2007] On the occasion of the visit of the President of China University of Geosciences, we discussed on the actual plan of the forum. Then, we agreed to initiate the forum for the purpose of mutual understanding and exchange academic information among us. We also agreed to held the forum every year with a periodical change of the meeting place between Tsukuba and Beijing. As a result, we agreed to start the first forum in Tsukuba hosted by UT and then the second forum in Beijing hosted by the Chinese University of Geosciences.
- (4) [19-23 Mar 2008] According to this agreement, nine students of the Graduate School of Life and Environmental Sciences, University of Tsukuba, visited Beijing in March of 2008 and had very fruitful meeting with students of the university and institutes which are now members of this forum (Pre-Forum in 2008 at Beijing)
